SHELLEN TO ADDRESS
KIWANIS CLUB TUESDAY

MISSOULA---

Wesley N. Shellen, an instructor in speech communication at the University of Montana, will address members of the Missoula Kiwanis Club at the group's weekly meeting at noon Tuesday (Sept. 30) at the Florence Motor Inn.

The 26-year-old instructor will discuss "Barriers to Communication." Shellen said the topic deals with "breakdowns to human communication which often are costly to business and society."

Shellen has been a UM faculty member two years and he has been active in conducting communication workshops for school personnel at Whitefish and Victor in recent weeks.

He also is director of intercollegiate forensics at the University. Shellen is working on his doctoral degree in interpersonal communication at Ohio University, Athens.
